KAYO
(President)

Tall, light and fun--that's "Kayo". He's a born leader with a ready smile. As president of the Senior Class and business manager of this yearbook---we salute him! Oh, yes he plays basketball and likes girls. What girls? ANY girls.

MABLE
(Vice President)

Mable Grice-Generous, agreeable, pretty and capable are some of the adjectives that go to make up one swell person. We feel sure that she will have a successful career in whatever field she chooses. We wish her "the best of everything."

SKEETER
(sec'y-treas.)

"Foot loose and fancy free", athletic, a fun lover and possessor of a wonderful personality--that's "Skeeter" our editor-in-chief. She loves music and is really a "kitten" on the keys. We can just hear her saying, "Kid, I have two dates tonight could you possibly----?" No, there'll never be another "Skeeter".

JENNY
(Reporter)

Virginia Austin-Dark and mysterious "Jenny" with her bewitching eyes-ummh! Good grades, witty remarks and a teasing smile won't hinder her ambition to become a career gal nor in finding her "One and only". Can't you imagine her rattling off, "Stop beating your gums, chum" or "Oh, no, not that"? No, we won't forget "Jenny".

DWAIN

JEWEL FAYE

THELMA

Dwain Kelly-the mischievous type. A guy with a "my, what a dish" attitude (not referring to food) is Kelly. He is quite the Jasonava of the class but he still finds time for basketball and geometry. Better keep an eye on that guy for he has what it takes.

Jewel Faye Powers- Our best example of a red-head with a good disposition. Known for her sense of humor and irresistable charm, Jewel Faye is quite a favorite among all the students. Keep smiling and you'll never want for friends--nor fame.

Thelma Thompson-Blonde, dainty, refreshing and natural. Thelma likes sports as long as she can sit on the sidelines. She has a sweet nature and wins friends by the car-loads. Here's to her.

"SQUEAK"

FLOYD

FAYE

Lucille Anglin-"The kind of gal you'd go for". "Squeak" as she is often called is A-1 in looks, personality and sports. Basketball slogan "Get her, Skeeter". Lot's of healthy guys are going to play sick just to hold her hand. Luck to you!

Floyd Wilkins-Another strong and silent guy, Floyd moves as noiselessly as a shadow. It's always worth the effort to coax him into a smile and watch his grey eyes twinkle. His shyness is a well-known trait and a very becoming one. Our hats are off to you!

Faye Milliner- "She's lovely, she's engaged, she uses soap". A wonderful student, a good sport and a nice person to know (espically during exams.) She has a knack for making things go over and puts her whole heart into her work. She'll make that certain "someone" a swell wife.

KITTEN

PAUL

NINA

Kitten White--"Kitten" is little but loud and has a way of letting you know she is there. Just hear her giggle once and you'll always remember her. She has scores of friends and a swell disposition. To sum her up, she's 100's!

Paul Johnson--"A merry heart make'th for a cheerful countance". If it's fun your hunting then look up Johnson. He is a pal to all, an alright guy. Shall we say, we wish him many "jokes" in life?

Nina Shea Duck--there are no words to describe Nina. She's simply everything good rolled into one. Nina is an inspiration to anyone who has ever been fortunate enough to meet her. We wish all the luck and happiness in the world to Nina, from the very bottom of our hearts.

BOBBY

EUNICE

PARIS

Bobby Clark--Bobby has that "Southern" accent. He is, without a doubt, the biggest laugh on the campus. His pet hate, besides chemistry, is girls--my, how they annoy him! Bobby has a lazy charm all his own, so--here's to him.

Eunice Moore--Dynamite comes in small packages, I've heard and Eunice is typical of both. She has fun with a capital F. She makes friends easily and chatter--well, if you can't hear in home ec. class then lay it to her. Luck to you.

Paris Duck--A good motto for Paris is "Eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow you may die". She lives by this philosophy and there never was a jollier, sweeter or better-natured person than she. Now she does love a laugh! She'll always pass with flying colors because she always looks on the sunny side of life.

LEON

Leon White-- We've never found out just what it is - studying or a girl that makes Leon such an individualist. He has the determination to go places and do things. So let's give him our best wishes.

RUBY NELL

Ruby Nell-Powers-- Dependable, happy and eager in service are qualities that are reminiscent of Ruby Nell. Probably best remembered as a secretary for Mr. Austin and possessing a knack for tracking down "missing" candy from the office.

MAX RAY

Max Ray Stanfill- An amazing complex of the humorous and the serious, the crazy and the practical, the lazy and energetic. Just when you think you have him "doped out" he reveals another side of his character. With his personality he is sure to win friends and influence people.

IMA LEE

Ima Lee-Bockhart--

Gay and gleeful, Ima Lee still manages to be diligent and persistent in all her work. She has loads of friends, perhaps that is because she always has a cheerful word for everyone. Yes, we'll miss you, Ima Lee.

JAMES ROY

Bima Jean Mc/Peake--Want to tease someone who can take it? Jean is good at taking jokes and the jokes are not always on her. She has brown eyes and is always happy. Her personality doubled with her contagious laughter is a sure breadwinner, so never worry about Jean.

JEAN

James Roy White- One of those guys you can't keep from liking. He is serious and swell, quiet and unassuming. The type of guy who makes his mark without band-playin', but makes it none-the-less. We're sure he's bound to succeed.

JUNIORS

Billy Woody-'A countance that charms the heart of every maiden'.

Jean Crews-'Winsome ways are pleasant'.

J.E. Taylor Jr.-'Man is weak and woman is his weakness'.

Grace Helems-'The gay of heart live long'.

Jerry Segerson-'When joy and duty smash, let duty go to smash'.

Ora Mae Grissom-'She has all the royal makings of a queen'.

Earsel Rimmer-'Don't interfere with my education'.

Mary Sue Austin-'If music be the food of love-play on'.

James Shannon-'Behold!A perfect gentleman'.

Kathleen Swift-'Her two charms-virture and quietness.'

James M. Austin-'Even Napeleon was a little man'.

Opal Powers-'The world laughs with her'.

Glyn Jones-'Caught a blonde with his millon-dollar smile'.

Ann Buck-'True grace was in all ner steps.'

Junior Melton-'Basketball is just another form of football.'

Mary Rogers-'If fame comes after death,Im in no hurry for it'.

Parker Reed-'My only books were womens looks and follys all they taught me'.

Helen Powers-'Two can live as sweetly as one'.

Roy Patterson-'He became a part of all who knew him'.

Coleen McClure-'Life is fun'.

Beatrice Snider-'Eyes (right).'

Maye Fields-'Honor to whom honor is due.'

Faye Smith-'She is a ray of intellectual fire'.

Virginia Jones-'True worth is in doing-not dreaming'.

Class Histories

Freshman Class-- We, the Freshmen, made our bow to high school in 1947. Thirty-seven bewildered students meekly made our way to classrooms. We underwent initiation with a courageous smile and credited it as being another crazy motion thought up by our upper classmen. As the year went by we became bolder. We entered a girl for a beauty contest and "lo and behold" she won! We are proving ourselves to be an outstanding class with an eye toward "The Road to Success", leaving behind "The Green Years."

Sophomore Class-- We, the Sophomores, entered high school in 1946 with thirty-four members before midterm. We lost three who decided they couldn't take it - algebra. Our principal said we were the best class he had taught in a long time (since the year before). Our science teacher commended us on being such a quiet, nice class until one day there was a terrific explosion in the lab. Chemicals? Oh, no, firecrackers!

Junior Class-- We, the Juniors, breezed into high school in 1945. The best class in school, of course, by far. We have done everything from winning high honors to putting cats in Miss Powers' desk. This has been a swell year but we are looking forward to next year when we can be "Top man on the totem pole."

Senior Class-- We, the Seniors, made our bow to high school in 1944. Of course, we first see ourselves as green freshmen, then as silly sophomores, jolly juniors, and at last, dignified SENIORS (well, seniors, anyway). We've had fun! Remember April 1, 1947, when we played hockey from school to enjoy a day's vacation at the "cave", and the time we almost got expelled for shooting firecrackers in the study-hall? Yes, it has been wonderful, but at last twenty-two of us Seniors see the final curtain fall and here we are storing into our hearts "Treasured Echoes" from the corridors of time and pledging ourselves to make the saying "Life can be beautiful" come true.

Yea, black, yea gold - come on Scotts Hill, let's go! The girl's basketball team is a whiz this year. We played fifteen games and were defeated only once, by Adamsville. We made up for that by beating them eight points on their return game which was played here. Mr. Cecil Milam is a swell coach and we owe much of our success to his untiring efforts to "make the most of an untrained group of girls." Next year should find our girls still winning victories right and left as only two guards graduate. Trophies to you, gals!

Our boy's basketball team was less fortunate than the girls. They won some games and we were all the more proud of them for showing such marked improvement. Three of the players are graduating this year - Dwain Kelly, Raymond Brasher and Max Ray Stanfill. Here's wishing next year's team a lot of luck and baskets!
